It's light in weight, yet big on style. The Social series boldly delivers a smart design– and an attractive price tag– it may just be one of the friendliest chairs around.

Social side chairs are easy to move anywhere, anytime– bringing newfound flexibility to offices, workstations, multipurpose areas and team rooms. Social not only blends performance with practicality, it looks great and perfectly compliments a number of SitOnIt Seating task chairs.

Designing with patterns and solids? No problem. Our black mesh and your choice of silver or black finishes help create an elegantly simple statement every time. Expand your creative choices with trusted fabric partners like Maharam, Momentum, DesignTex and Spinneybeck.

Discover the perfect complement to any office interior with our Social seating collection.

Ergonomics / Comfort

Social offers excellent support and a perfect fit for extended comfort. Its ergonomic back follows the natural curve of the human body, offering firm, body-fitting support and ideal tension from the double-layered mesh. An upholstered waterfall seat further promotes good circulation and posture conforming to each body naturally.
